

Air Tanzania is the national carrier of Tanzania, founded in 1977. It operates both domestic and international flights, connecting Tanzania to key destinations in Africa, Asia, and Europe. Known for its distinctive green, yellow, and black livery, the airline has undergone significant modernization in recent years, expanding its fleet and improving services. Air Tanzania plays a crucial role in boosting tourism and trade in Tanzania by offering convenient travel options to both locals and international visitors. Despite challenges, it continues to be a key player in East African aviation.
